PRESS RELEASE – EMBARGOED UNTIL WEDNESDAY 26TH FEBRUARY 2025:
TIME 1.30pm

HRH The Princess Royal Visits Lydney to Meet Flood Victims

Lydney, UK – Her Royal Highness The Princess Royal visited Lydney today, Wednesday 26th February 2025, to meet with victims of the devastating floods that occurred in November 2024, as a result of Storm Bert.

The visit aimed to offer support and solidarity to those affected by the severe flooding caused by Storm Bert.

During her visit, The Princess Royal met with residents, business owners, volunteers, council representatives, and various organisations.

She listened to their stories, offered words of encouragement, and praised the community's resilience and spirit in the face of adversity.

The Princess Royal also toured some of the affected areas, witnessing firsthand the extensive damage caused by the floods.

The Princess Royal expressed her admiration for the local community's efforts in the ongoing clean-up and recovery operations.

This visit underscores Her Royal Highness's commitment to supporting communities in times of crisis and highlighting the importance of collective efforts in rebuilding and recovery.
